Forecast For Highland & Eilean Siar
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 1600 on Thursday 03 Jun 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Southwest rather cloudy on Friday, some brightness elsewhere.

This Evening and Tonight:
Cloud dispersing to leave a mainly clear and dry night, perhaps a few morning showers for Lochaber on Friday. Quite breezy for the Hebrides and west coasts by morning. Minimum temperature 9 deg C (48 deg F).

Friday:
Mostly cloudy across the Western Isles and Lochaber with the odd shower. Dry elsewhere with some bright spells. Somewhat cooler than of late. Brisk southerly wind in the far west. Maximum temperature 20 deg C (68 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Scattered showers on Saturday, brightest in the east. Mostly dry and bright on Sunday and Monday, feeling warm in the sunshine.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.